Do you work with clients who have dementia?

Or in a public facing role?

UNISON can help. We are running a free course

- Information about Dementia and it's impact on people.
- Raise awareness of support mechanisms available for people with dementia
- Gain an understanding of issues relating to dementia.
- Gain an understanding of how people with dementia and their families can be supported .
- Confidence in utilising support mechanisms and supporting strategies for people with dementia.
- Know where to find and signpost further support.
